To amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to provide that an applicant for citizenship who served honorably in the Armed Forces of the United States is not automatically barred from becoming a citizen of the United States for having committed certain crimes, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. Takano introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on ____________________

A BILL

To amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to provide that an applicant for citizenship who served honorably in the Armed Forces of the United States is not automatically barred from becoming a citizen of the United States for having committed certain crimes, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
4 This Act may be cited as the “Second Chance for 5 Service Act”.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
SEC. 2. ESTABLISHING GOOD MORAL CHARACTER OF APPLICANTS FOR CITIZENSHIP WHO SERVED HONORABLY IN THE ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES.

Section 328(e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act is amended by adding at the end the following: “Notwithstanding section 101(f), a finding that an applicant under this section is described in any of paragraphs (1) through (9) of section 101(f) (except in the case of an applicant who is described in any such paragraph because of having been convicted of an aggravated felony described in subparagraph (A), (I), (K), or (L) of section 101(a)(43)) shall not preclude a finding that the applicant is of good moral character. In determining whether the applicant is of good moral character, the applicant’s service under honorable conditions shall be weighed against any finding that the applicant is described any such paragraph.”.
